These poems are meant to be pondered over.
There is a message contained in each one.
There is a riddle to be solved.
I hope they may contain meanings for your life.

The Power To Change

The power to change.
We have all made huge mistakes in our life.
I know of most certainly have.
I'm not proud of the mistakes I have done.
Yet we all have the power to change.
We can never undo the mistakes we have made.
But we came to have redemption.
We can grow and change for the better.
We can pull our inner weeds moment by moment.
We can transform.
The great thing is God does not judge.
Man does.
We have free will.
That does not say you can do anything you want.
There is a law upon this land.
Yet with free will, you have the power to change.
You can change your actions to reflect yourself as a better human being
You can transform yourself from darkness into light.
Anger, hate, war, and intolerance are of the past.
Kindness, Love, and Compassion are your true nature.
You have the inner power of love within you.
The power to change begins with one simple step.
Yes, you may wobble and fall.
Take another step.
Take baby steps.
If you fall don't get discouraged.
Take another step.
Remember this process is two steps forward one step backward.
So don't be hard on yourself.
The universe is rooting you on.
You are the piece of the puzzle and you are making effort to discover your piece.
No matter what you have done you can change.
You can transform yourself so that those negative actions will never take place again.
By discovering your true nature negativity is dissolved.
It goes away into the wind.
What can I say?
You are the universe.

God is on your side.
He exists inside of you.
Remember to take baby steps.
You can't leap there.
Just one small step after another.
You have the power to change.

Song The Power To Change

(Verse 1)

We've all made mistakes, I know it's true,
In the shadows of the past, I've stumbled too.
Not proud of the faults that time can't erase,
But within our hearts lies a sacred space.

(Chorus)

Oh, the power to change, it lives in you,
One small step forward, that's all you gotta do.
In the light of compassion, we'll find our way,
With the strength of our love, we can rise today.

(Verse 2)

Redemption's a journey, moment by moment,
Pulling the weeds, embrace your own momentum.
God doesn't judge, it's the man who does,
With free will in our hands, let's spark the buzz.

(Chorus)

Oh, the power to change, it lives in you,
One small step forward, that's all you gotta do.
In the light of compassion, we'll find our way,
With the strength of our love, we can rise today.

(Bridge)

Anger and hate, they are fading away,
Kindness and love will light up our way.
Take baby steps, when the road feels long,
Each wobble and fall, we're still growing strong.

(Chorus)

Oh, the power to change, it lives in you,
One small step forward, that's all you gotta do.
In the light of compassion, we'll find our way,
With the strength of our love, we can rise today.

(Verse 3)

Two steps forward, sometimes one back,
Don't be so hard on yourself, just stay on track.
The universe is cheering, you're part of the whole,
With each tender step, you're discovering your soul.

(Chorus)

Oh, the power to change, it lives in you,
One small step forward, that's all you gotta do.
In the light of compassion, we'll find our way,
With the strength of our love, we can rise today.

(Outro)

No matter what you've done, you can begin anew,
The universe whispers, "I believe in you."
So take that small step, let your spirit engage,
Together we'll find the power to change.

The Revolution Is Here

The revolution is here.
It's a silent one.
There are no guns.
There is no anger.
It's a peaceful one.
There are no protests or marches.
Nobody is trying to convince you.
The revolution is occurring in your heart.
Millions of people are waking up from their slumber.
Mankind is embracing the heart.
Mankind is slowly waking up and discovering its true nature.
You are the universe.
You just don't know it.
It's an amazing time to be alive.
Mankind has so much potential.
We are just skimming the surface of the ocean of life.
We were meant to dive deep into the depths of the ocean.
This is our true nature.
We have passed a marking point in history where peace will prevail.
I know it doesn't look that way.
There are big stick-mixing things around.
The light for the first time in many moons is more prevalent than the light.
Darkness can't hide.
It comes out.
This is darkness's last stand.
It knows the battle is over.
The sun is rising.
It's a beautiful sunrise.
Can you feel the love oozing from within?
Man will once again learn how to be in harmony with nature.
We can do this.
We can solve any problems once we are united.
We have so much incredible potential.
The journey starts with taking one small step after another.
Yes, we will fall.
Yes, we will get off the ground and take another step.
Maybe is two steps forward, one step backward.
That is how we grow.

We can learn from our mistakes.
Ponder this over.

Song The Revolution Is Here

(Verse 1)

The revolution is here, but it's silent and clear,
No guns, no anger, just the whispers we hear.
In a world so still, where no one seeks to fight,
It's a peaceful awakening, emerging into the light.

(Chorus)

Can you feel the love oozing from within?
A spark in our hearts, the journey can begin.
We're the universe, but we just don't know,
Together we can rise, together we will grow.

(Verse 2)

Millions waking up, shaking off the chains,
Embracing our hearts, letting go of the pains.
We've skimmed the surface of this ocean so wide,
Now it's time to dive deep, to embrace the tide.

(Chorus)

Can you feel the love oozing from within?
A spark in our hearts, the journey can begin.
We're the universe, but we just don't know,
Together we can rise, together we will grow.

(Bridge)

History marks this moment, where peace will prevail,
Though darkness surrounds us, it's bound to fail.
The sun is rising beautifully, shining ever bright,
In the warmth of its glow, we will find our light.

(Verse 3)

Harmony with nature, it's in our design,
When united we stand, the stars will realign.
Yes, we may stumble, take steps through the night,
But with each small victory, we'll find our true sight.

(Chorus)

Can you feel the love oozing from within?
A spark in our hearts, the journey can begin.

We're the universe, but we just don't know,
Together we can rise, together we will grow.

(Outro)

So ponder this moment, let your spirit soar,
The revolution is silent, but it's knocking at the door.
As each heartbeat echoes, our potential ignites,
We are one with the cosmos, ready to take flight.

The Solution

What is the solution for man?
Man has been fighting for thousands of years.
What has it gotten us?
Innocent men and women are buried in graves.
At least a wildfire in nature ultimately nurtures the soil.
Yet somehow we think that fighting will solve the problem.
War has never solved any problems.
We must let go of all negative emotions if we want to survive.
Anger, war, greed, and intolerance must be let go.
We must embrace kindness, love, and compassion.
This is our true state of existence.
You are the universe.
You just don't know it.
We must be diligent farmers.
We must pull our inner weeds.
We must plant the seeds of kindness, love, and compassion.
Water them daily.
Watch what you are saying.
If it's going to be negativity don't say it.
Day by day take baby steps.
Yes, you will fall.
That's part of the adventure.
Two steps forward one step backward.
This is how we learn
Slow and steady wins the race.
You can't take giant leaps.
Look the earth took billions of years in evolution so we can be here.
Imagine if you did your part of solving the piece of the puzzle
You would inspire your family and friends.
They would want to know what you are doing.
There is no conversion on this path.
The truth needs no conversion.
There is no convincing on this path.
The truth needs no convincing.
Each human being is unique.
You are custom made.
God, the supreme electrician has wired you up so you can discover your true nature.

Ponder this over.
You can solve this puzzle.

Song The Solution

Verse 1

What is the solution for man, I ask,
With thousands of years behind a heavy mask?
Innocent souls rest in silent graves,
Yet still, we fight, convinced there's something to save.
But like a wildfire that helps the earth renew,
We hold on to conflict, thinking it's what we do.

Chorus

War has never solved the pain,
Let go of anger, let go of the blame.
Embrace the kindness, let love be the guide,
In the heart of compassion, our true strength resides.

Verse 2

Pull the weeds from your inner mind,
Plant the seeds of love, let healing be blind.
Water them daily, in every word you speak,
If negativity rises, it's kindness you seek.
Step by step, we'll learn and grow,
With pauses and fallbacks, it's part of the show.

Chorus

War has never solved the pain,
Let go of anger, let go of the blame.
Embrace the kindness, let love be the guide,
In the heart of compassion, our true strength resides.

Bridge

Slow and steady wins the race,
The earth took time, creating space.
Imagine your part, a piece of the whole,
Inspiring others, that's the goal.
No need for conversion, we just need to be,
The truth reveals itself, setting us free.

Chorus

War has never solved the pain,

Let go of anger, let go of the blame.
Embrace the kindness, let love be the guide,
In the heart of compassion, our true strength resides.

Outro

You are the universe, custom-made,
With dreams yet to blossom, don't let them fade.
Ponder this journey, the puzzle's alive,
Together we flourish, together we thrive.
So take a deep breath, let your spirit expand,
The solution for man is simply love's hand.

The Song Of Life

The song of life.
Can you hear it?
The universe is singing such a sweet song.
Can you hear it?
Glorious harmonies are all around you.
Are you lost in texting on your cell phone?
The universe is alive.
Where are you?
Do you know the essence of your life?
Have you taken your first conscious step.?
You have free will.
You can walk all alone in this life while you have an endless amount of support watching over you.
The decision is up to you.
You must day by day.
Moment by moment pay attention to the jewel inside.
In the beginning, it takes great effort.
You meditate on God.
Somewhere along the way God begins to meditate on you.
That's a glorious thing.
You can be a partner of God.
You can learn how to be kind in any situation.
You can learn how to have patience and tolerance.
You can learn how to have love and compassion.
This is your true nature.
The song is playing for eternity.
You are eternal.
You were never created.
You will never die.
Your body will.
But your true essence will never die.
Think about that.
Ponder over that.
You can discover the jewel inside of you.
That's your true nature.
The great masters of the past mastered it.
They said a deaf man can hear the unstruck music.
This music is intoxicating to the soul.

Yet this intoxication will make a man wise.
It will totally transform him.
Ponder this over.
You can solve this puzzle.

The Song Of Life

 (Verse 1) **

Can you hear it? The universe sings,
A sweet melody, with the joy it brings.
Glorious harmonies all around,
In the silence of life, can you feel the sound?

 (Chorus) **

Oh, the song of life is calling you home,
Don't get lost in the screen, you're not alone.
Open your heart, let the music unfold,
Find the jewel inside, let your spirit be bold.

 (Verse 2) **

Are you searching while your eyes are glued,
To the glow of the screen, life's most precious hues?
The universe is alive, where do you stand?
Do you know the essence, take the first hand?

 (Chorus) **

Oh, the song of life is calling you home,
Don't get lost in the screen, you're not alone.
Open your heart, let the music unfold,
Find the jewel inside, let your spirit be bold.

 (Bridge) **

You have free will, take your first stride,
With support all around, let love be your guide.
In the effort you'll find, the divine will appear,
Meditate on God, He is always near.

 (Verse 3) **

A glorious thing, to be partners in this,
Learning kindness and love, in each little bliss.
Patience and tolerance, it's all in your reach,
This is your true nature, let your soul teach.

 (Chorus) **

Oh, the song of life is calling you home,
Don't get lost in the screen, you're not alone.
Open your heart, let the music unfold,
Find the jewel inside, let your spirit be bold.

(Outro)

You are eternal, never to end,
Your body will fade, but your essence transcends.
Think on this treasure, let wisdom guide your way,
The unstruck music is yours every day.
Ponder this puzzle, let it transform,
In the song of life, let your spirit be reborn.

The Spirit Of Humanity

The spirit of humanity.
Wow, what can I say?
You are the universe.
You just don't know it.
Your spirit never dies.
It is eternal.
You were never created and you will never be destroyed.
Your body will.
But your spirit is eternal.
Isn't that amazing?
Yet we are driving down the street with our cell phones in our hands.
We are oblivious to our true nature.
Your true essence is kindness.
Your true nature is love and compassion.
Your true nature is patience and tolerance.
What happened?
How did we totally drift off course?
We are like a ship without a rudder.
Our planet is in turmoil.
Yet millions of people are waking up from their slumber.
Humanity will reclaim and once again discover its true nature.
The sun is rising.
Mark my words peace will come on earth.
Yes, it will take some time.
But the weeds are being pulled on this planet.
Darkness is slowly disappearing.
Soon the sun will rise to a point where the darkness is totally gone.
You are a piece of this puzzle.
Discover your true nature and you will help humanity to solve this puzzle.
It takes each one of us.
I can't solve your piece of the puzzle.
Every individual on this planet has to solve it for themselves.
You are your own savior.
Yes, help is on the way.
Just simply ask.
You have free will.
Nobody will take that away from you.
Ponder this over.

Discover your true nature.
God lies inside of you.

Song The Spirit Of Humanity

(Verse 1)

Wow, what can I say?
You are the universe, in every way.
A spark within, but you don't see it shine,
Your spirit never dies, it's woven through time.

(Chorus)

Oh, the spirit of humanity, rising from the ground,
In kindness and love, we're finally found.
As the darkness fades, and the sun breaks free,
We'll remember our essence, in unity we'll be.

(Verse 2)

Driving down the street, lost in our screens,
Oblivious to the truth, to our deeper dreams.
Your heart is the answer, your soul the key,
In patience and compassion, we find unity.

(Chorus)

Oh, the spirit of humanity, rising from the ground,
In kindness and love, we're finally found.
As the darkness fades, and the sun breaks free,
We'll remember our essence, in unity we'll be.

(Bridge)

What happened along the way?
Have we lost our hearts, led astray?
But millions are waking, the time is now,
To reclaim our spirit, we'll learn to bow.

(Verse 3)

A ship without a rudder, caught in the storm,
Yet the hope in our hearts is starting to warm.
With each passing moment, we're feeling the change,
The weeds are pulled up, no longer estranged.

(Chorus)

Oh, the spirit of humanity, rising from the ground,
In kindness and love, we're finally found.
As the darkness fades, and the sun breaks free,
We'll remember our essence, in unity we'll be.

(Outro)

You're a piece of the puzzle, each one plays their part,
Discover your nature, let love fill your heart.
The light lies within, just ask and believe,
Together we'll flourish, together we'll achieve.

(Final Chorus)

Oh, the spirit of humanity, rising from the ground,
In kindness and love, we're finally found.
As the darkness fades, and the sun breaks free,
We'll remember our essence, in unity we'll be.

(Fade out)

In unity we'll be,
In unity we'll be,
The spirit of humanity,
Forever free.

The Summer Night Time Breeze

The summer nighttime breeze.
Once upon a time, I lived in Maui with my family.
I was working at the observatory on top of Haleakalā.
My wife and I loved to work on the Lahaina side of Maui.
We would love to take off our sandals and walk in the ocean water and feel the nighttime breeze.
The best time of the year was summertime.
Words truly can't describe the feeling.
Yet we would walk slowly and capture the moment.
There was a hotel that had a marvelous Buddha statue.
It was quite a beautiful sight.
Maybe it was one of those times when all the elements came together.
It seemed like a perfect moment.
The only thing you could hear was the sound of the ocean.
The moon was full and reflecting in the ocean.
Time seemed to slow down.
There was an aura of peace all around.
This peace seemed to exist everywhere.
Why don't we capture these moments every day while we are alive?
Signposts of God are everywhere.
Yet do we have the eyes to see?
Imagine every moment this peace is pervading everywhere.
There is a sweet perfume of life in all of the universe.
Yet man is missing out.
We have been trained to look outside for the answers.
Mystics have come and gone.
They told their incredible story.
Man just went on their merry way.
I'm not interested in anything spiritual.
It's just a made-up story.
Yet the spiritual path is the most practical path.
It shows you the way in this crazy jungle of life.
Imagine having someone who shows you the way out of the darkness and into the light.
Your true nature will help you on the way.
You have free will.
You can be stuck in your ways.
Nobody will judge you for that.

Ponder this over.
You can solve this puzzle.

Song The Summer Night Time Breeze

Verse 1

In the summer nighttime breeze,
Once upon a time in Maui, we were free,
Working 'neath the stars on Haleakalā,
With my love beside, oh, how sweet it was.

Chorus

Feel the ocean wash over our feet,
In the gentle rhythm where the land and sea meet,
Moments captured in the moonlight glow,
With a peaceful aura, we just let it flow.

Verse 2

On Lahaina's shore, we'd leave our shoes,
The tide whispered secrets, the night sang the blues,
A Buddha's gaze from a hotel afar,
A perfect moment beneath the evening star.

Chorus

Feel the ocean wash over our feet,
In the gentle rhythm where the land and sea meet,
Moments captured in the moonlight glow,
With a peaceful aura, we just let it flow.

Bridge

Why don't we pause, take a breath, and see,
These signposts of love, right here, we could be,
The sweet perfume of life fills the air,
Yet we rush past the magic, too often unaware.

Verse 3

Mystics echoed wisdom through the sands of time,
But many walk on, caught in reason and rhyme,
"I'm not interested," they sway, they sway,
But the path to the light is the most practical way.

Chorus

Feel the ocean wash over our feet,
In the gentle rhythm where the land and sea meet,
Moments captured in the moonlight glow,
With a peaceful aura, we just let it flow.

Outro

Embrace your true nature, let your heart find its way,
You're never judged for the choices you make today,
So ponder this journey, solve the puzzle, find peace,
In the summer nighttime breeze, let your spirit release.

The Sunshine

I love the sunshine.
Many moons ago I lived in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
The winters got cold.
I remember going to a small grocery store.
We would buy our groceries.
Along the way home there was the area where the sun hit.
It was perfect for sunbathing.
My friends and I would stop for around five minutes and bask in the sun.
We would close our eyes and feel the warmth of the sun.
It was a glorious moment.
The sun was alive.
We were be natured by the sun's rays.
There are no words to describe it.
We felt in harmony with the sun.
The sun was communicating without words being spoken.
Words are finite.
The sun communicates through love.
As a matter of fact, the entire universe communicates through love.
Most of the time humanity is oblivious to it.
We are in our cars with our cell phones in our hands.
We are building one more extra layer between us and the universe.
We have one extra layer that we have to go through to discover our true nature.
Silas, Ephraim, and I went through this routine for the winter while we were there.
It was a glorious moment in my life.
Who could believe that just backing in the sun could be such an enlightened moment?
How many moments do we lose not by seeing the signposts all around us?
Is life like hide and seek?
The signpost is there yet we don't see them.
Magic is all around us.
The light is all around us yet we live in darkness.
We have forgotten our true nature.
The sun never boasts or says "look at me".
The sun just shines.
That's our true nature.
The secret lies within.
Ponder this over.
Discover the sunshine within your being.

Song The Sunshine

Verse 1

I love the sunshine, many moons ago,
In Santa Fe, where the warm winds blow.
Winters got cold, but we found a way,
To gather our hearts at the end of the day.

Pre-Chorus

A small grocery store, just us three,
Silas, Ephraim, and the sun setting free,
We'd wander the streets, feeling so alive,
Basking in warmth, where our spirits could thrive.

Chorus

Oh, let me feel that sunlight glow,
In that sacred space, where the warm winds flow.
The sun's soft whisper, no words to confide,
Communicating love, in the warmth we abide.

Verse 2

Five minutes of bliss, we'd close our eyes tight,
Feeling the rays, everything felt so right.
In harmony with nature, a glorious time,
The sun never boasts, just whispers in rhyme.

Pre-Chorus

Yet in our lives, we build our own walls,
With phones in our hands, we forget nature's calls.
The universe sings, but we're lost in the hum,
When all we need is the beat of the sun.

Chorus

Oh, let me feel that sunlight glow,
In that sacred space, where the warm winds flow.
The sun's soft whisper, no words to confide,
Communicating love, in the warmth we abide.

Bridge

How many moments do we let slip away?
With signposts around, but we've lost the way.
Magic is all, in the light that we see,
If we open our hearts, we can finally be free.

Chorus

Oh, let me feel that sunlight glow,
In that sacred space, where the warm winds flow.
The sun's soft whisper, no words to confide,
Communicating love, in the warmth we abide.

Outro

So ponder this over, let your heart find its song,
Discover the sunshine within, where you truly belong.
In every ray of light, let the love shine through,
For the secret lies within, all the joy is in you.

The Wheel Of Life

The wheel of life.
Is life a cosmic wheel?
The wheel turns and turns for eternity.
We come and go.
Civilizations come and go.
Universes come and go.
This is the wheel of life.
Nothing is constant.
Everything changes.
Nothing will remain the same.
Someday the earth will no longer exist.
I'm not being morbid.
I'm just saying the facts.
Everything in the universe comes and goes.
Even the universe will disappear in a blink of an eye.
Yet you are eternal.
You were never created nor will you ever be destroyed.
Yes, your body will die.
But you will never die.
There is a part of you that is eternal.
You may ask that's incredible.
If that's true why don't I know it?
Because you are looking in the wrong place.
You are driving in your car with your cell phone in your hand.
You think that reality exists only external.
You are the universe.
You just don't know it.
You have been looking in the wrong place.
The journey exists inside of you.
This is the greatest game of hide and seek.
God hides inside of you.
Yet you are looking all over and never can find it.
You have free will.
You can learn how to take baby steps to discover your true nature.
All the great masters have said the same thing.
They may use different words.
Christ said the "kingdom of heaven lies within".
This is not some metaphor.

Ponder this over.
You can solve this mystery.
The wheel of life is turning.
Discover your true nature.

Song The Wheel Of Life

(Verse 1)

Is life a cosmic wheel, spinning endlessly,
With echoes of civilizations lost,
We come and go, like shadows on the sea,
Fading memories, what's the cost?

(Pre-Chorus)

Everything's in motion, nothing stays the same,
Through the stars we journey, playing an ancient game.
Someday the earth will whisper its goodbye,
But within this fleeting dance, our spirits never die.

(Chorus)

The wheel of life keeps turning,
Through the night and through the day,
From stardust we are yearning,
To find our way, find our way.
The universe inside us, a truth we must embrace,
In the silence, we discover, the divine in every space.

(Verse 2)

You think the truth is out there, in the flickering light,
With your phone in hand, driving through the night.
But all around you, and deep within your soul,
Lies a spark of wonder, a story yet untold.

(Pre-Chorus)

The journey's not in shadows, but in the heart you hold,
A treasure waiting patiently, more precious than gold.
Christ spoke of kingdoms, standing still,
Ponder this forever, it's the greatest thrill.

(Chorus)

The wheel of life keeps turning,
Through the night and through the day,
From stardust we are yearning,
To find our way, find our way.

The universe inside us, a truth we must embrace,
In the silence, we discover, the divine in every space.

(Bridge)

God's hiding in the moments, in your laughter, in your tears,
The mystery unfolds when we embrace our fears.
Take the baby steps, let go, and dive inside,
You are the universe, you don't need to hide.

(Chorus)

The wheel of life keeps turning,
Through the night and through the day,
From stardust we are yearning,
To find our way, find our way.
The universe inside us, a truth we must embrace,
In the silence, we discover, the divine in every space.

(Outro)

So let the wheel keep spinning, let it take us on this ride,
For within this cosmic dance, our eternal selves reside.
Embrace the fleeting moments, as the stars align above,
In the wheel of life we're turning, find your truth, find your love.

The World Would Be Much Better

The world would be much better if we were all kind.
The world would be much better if we had love and compassion for all.
The world would be much better if we had patience and tolerance for all.
Mankind can choose a better way to live.
We have been fighting and bickering for ever so long.
It seems like that's our true nature.
Yet our true nature is kindness.
Our true nature is love and compassion.
Our true nature is patience and tolerance.
Where did we go wrong?
Are we like a ship without a rudder?
We don't see the unity of life.
You are the universe.
You just don't know it.
Maybe that's the problem.
We think living in darkness is our true nature.
We accept our anger, hate, and intolerance as a part of us.
I can't change it.
This is who I am.
Yes, darkness exists in all of us.
This is why it's so important to shine the light inside.
Darkness is only the absence of light.
When you switch on a light entering the room darkness disappears.
Darkness is simply the absence of light.
All the great masters talked about discovering your true nature.
Nobody gets a free ride.
Did you know that the Dali Lama once had a temper problem when he was young?
He learned how to go beyond his anger.
He pulled his inner weeds day by day.
He planted seeds of kindness, love, and compassion.
He daily watered the soil.
Look at him now.
He is an inspiration to the world.
You can also be an inspiration to the world.
You are a precious piece of the puzzle.
The world needs for you to discover your true nature.
The time is ripe.
The sun is arising.

It's going to be a glorious day.
Ponder this over.

Song The World Would Be Much Better

Verse 1

In a world where kindness reigns,
Where love flows like gentle rain,
Compassion blooms in every heart,
Together, we can make a start.

Chorus

Oh, the world would shine so bright,
If we chose to share the light.
With patience, tolerance, hand in hand,
We can spread love across the land.

Verse 2

Fighting shadows, bickering loud,
Seems we've lost sight in the crowd,
But deep inside, we know the truth,
Our true nature's love, that's our proof.

Chorus

Oh, the world would shine so bright,
If we chose to share the light.
With patience, tolerance, hand in hand,
We can spread love across the land.

Bridge

Where did we stray from harmony's song?
Adrift like ships, where do we belong?
You're the universe, can't you see?
Within your soul, lies unity.

Verse 3

In the darkness, we often dwell,
Accepting anger like a heavy shell,
But light can break the strongest night,
Darkness fades when we shine our light.

Chorus

Oh, the world would shine so bright,
If we chose to share the light.
With patience, tolerance, hand in hand,
We can spread love across the land.

Verse 4

Remember masters who've walked this way,
Dalaï Lama faced storms, but chose to stay,
He learned to pull those weeds with grace,
Planting seeds of love in their place.

Chorus

Oh, the world would shine so bright,
If we chose to share the light.
With patience, tolerance, hand in hand,
We can spread love across the land.

Outro

So ponder this as the sun begins to rise,
It's a glorious day—open your eyes.
You're a puzzle piece, just waiting to be,
An inspiration for the world to see.

Chorus (reprise)

Oh, the world would shine so bright,
If we chose to share the light.
With patience, tolerance, hand in hand,
We can spread love across the land.
Together, we can heal this land.

The Year Of 2017

The year 2017.
Wow, what a year.
It seems like time is flying.
What an incredible rush.
This planet is slowly changing.
The pot is being stirred.
No longer can you stand on the fence.
The fence no longer exists.
You must choose what you want.
Do you want the old energies of war, hate, and anger?
Or.
Do you want peace, kindness, love, and compassion?
The choice is yours.
You decide.
Nobody can choose for you.
You have free will.
You must make a conscious decision.
In order for peace to occur, you must solve your piece of the puzzle.
Nobody can put your piece on the puzzle board of life.
This is how precious you are.
The sun is rising on the horizon.
You can see darkness scrambling all around.
There is no place to hide.
Look at the world around us.
Look at how all truths that have been hidden come out in the open.
This is the new dawning of man.
The light is dispelling the darkness.
You are a part of this process.
Pull your inner weeds of war, anger, and hate.
Pull all of your negative weeds.
Daily focus on peace, kindness, love, and compassion for all.
If you do day by day this world will change for the better.
You can do this.
The time is now.
Peace will come to earth.
You will discover your true nature.
The jewel lies inside of you.
Pick up your inner shovel and discover the diamond within.

Song The Year Of 2017

(Verse 1)

Oh, what a year, can you feel it in the air?
Time is flying, caught in the rush, so rare.
The world is shifting, stirring pots everywhere,
No more sitting on the fence, it's time to care.

(Chorus)

Do you want the war, the hate, the anger that divides?
Or do you choose the light where love and kindness abides?
The choice is yours, can't you see?
You hold the key to set us free.
In this dance of life, make your stand,
With peace and compassion, let's join hands.

(Verse 2)

The sun is rising on the horizon bright,
Watch the shadows scramble, try to escape the light.
Truths once hidden are breaking through,
This is the dawning, it's calling me and you.

(Chorus)

Do you want the war, the hate, the anger that divides?
Or do you choose the light where love and kindness abides?

The choice is yours, can't you see?
You hold the key to set us free.
In this dance of life, make your stand,
With peace and compassion, let's join hands.

(Bridge)

Pull out the weeds of anger, let them go,
Focus daily on the seeds of peace to sow.
With every little choice, a brighter world we'll find,
Discover all the treasures, hidden deep inside your mind.

(Verse 3)

The time is now, the world awaits your heart,
Your piece of the puzzle, come on and play your part.
Uncover the diamond, let your true nature shine,
In this symphony of life, together we align.

(Chorus)

Do you want the war, the hate, the anger that divides?
Or do you choose the light where love and kindness abides?
The choice is yours, can't you see?
You hold the key to set us free.
In this dance of life, make your stand,
With peace and compassion, let's join hands.

(Outro)

So rise up, together, let's embrace the change,

With hearts wide open, let's rearrange.

In the glow of kindness, we'll find our way,

In the light of peace, we'll welcome a new day.

There Is A Place I Can Go

There is a place I can go.
This place is my true state.
Freedom, kindness love, and compassion reside there.
This is your true home.
This is where you came from.
You have simply forgotten.
You are eternal.
You were never created.
You will never die.
Your body will.
Yet your soul is eternal.
You can go to this place while you are alive.
All the great masters talked about this great place.
Christ said the kingdom of heaven is inside.
These weren't just words.
There is a practical moment by moment experience.
You can be in heaven while you are alive.
Heaven is a state of being.
There are no physical mansions there.
Yet kindness, love, mercy, compassion, and patience reside there.
You can express these qualities day by day in your life.
Pull your inner negative weeds every day.
Water your inner soil.
Toil your soil.
Take care of your inner garden.
Watch what you are thinking.
Drop your negative thoughts.
Take two steps forward.
One step backward.
This is how you learn.
Nobody gets a free ride.
You grow and learn from your mistakes.
Life is like a video game.
You grow and learn from each different level.
The game gets harder yet you enjoy each level you are playing in.
This life is a grand adventure.
Ponder this over.
You can be in heaven while you are alive.

Song There Is A Place I Can Go

(Verse 1)

There's a place I can go, a hidden state,
Where freedom flows and love won't wait.
Kindness blooms like flowers in the sun,
Compassion is the air, the race we've run.
This is your true home, where spirits soar,
A forgotten memory, knocking at your door.

(Chorus)

You are eternal, never created,
In this moment, life is celebrated.
Feel the pulse of the universe inside,
Heaven's a state of being, come and take the ride.

(Verse 2)

Christ spoke of a kingdom deep within,
Not just words, but where we begin.
Every breath a chance to rise and shine,
In the garden of your heart, love's design.
Pull those weeds, let the sun seep in,
Water your soil, let the journey begin.

(Chorus)

You are eternal, never created,

In this moment, life is celebrated.
Feel the pulse of the universe inside,
Heaven's a state of being, come and take the ride.

(Bridge)

Take two steps forward, one step back,
Learning from the path, staying on track.
Life's a game, each level to explore,
With kindness and patience, you'll unlock the door.
Through the struggles and the plays,
A grand adventure in so many ways.

(Verse 3)

Watch your thoughts, let the negativity fade,
In the garden of your soul, love is made.
The game gets harder, but you're never alone,
In every moment, find your way back home.

(Chorus)

You are eternal, never created,
In this moment, life is celebrated.
Feel the pulse of the universe inside,
Heaven's a state of being, come and take the ride.

(Outro)

Ponder this over, let your spirit thrive,
You can be in heaven, oh, while you're alive.
So, take a breath, let the magic unfold,
In this vibrant life, find the heaven you hold.

The Breath

The breath
It's kinda sad.
The majority of mankind takes a breath for granted.
Yes, we breathe in and breathe out.
That's so common to us.
We do this in each and every moment.
What could be more common?
We all breathe.
Yet behind our breath is a power that keeps the entire universe alive.
You are the universe.
You just don't know it.
The power behind your breath is keeping you alive.
You have the potential to connect to this source.
In essence, this is your true nature.
Many of the great masters taught this.
They taught us to meditate upon our breath.
It takes baby steps.
At first, you may not seem to feel or see anything.
Have patience.
The mind is like a tuning fork.
It takes time to tune into the frequency of life.
This frequency is pure love.
Day by day simply follow your breath.
Year by year simply follow your breath.
Decade by decade simply follow your breath.
Your breath will set you free.
Your breath will reveal you're true nature while you are alive.
I know it sounds so simple.
It is.
Yet we make life so complicated.
The truth can be there all the time.
Yet we are trained to look outside of ourselves.
The jewel has always been hidden under our pillow.
This is where God hides.
Inside of you.
This is the greatest hide-and-seek game.
Ponder this over.
You can solve this puzzle.

Song The Breath

(Verse 1)

In the stillness of the night,
We take a breath, it feels so right,
But most don't see the light,
In every sigh, in every fight.
Too common to take for granted,
The spark of life we all have planted,
Behind each breath, the universe stands,
A symphony of silent hands.

(Chorus)

Breathe in, breathe out, can't you see?
The universe is you, and you are free.
With every breath, we find the key,
Unlock the treasure that's meant to be.
Oh, the power, the love we share,
In the rhythm of the breath, we find the air.

(Verse 2)

Great masters whisper through the years,
"Just follow your breath, conquer your fears."
It's subtle, like a feather's touch,
In simple moments, it becomes so much.
The mind may wander, struggle to find,
But patience opens the heart and mind.
Tune in gently, let the silence speak,
In the pulse of life, find what you seek.

(Chorus)

Breathe in, breathe out, can't you see?
The universe is you, and you are free.
With every breath, we find the key,
Unlock the treasure that's meant to be.
Oh, the power, the love we share,
In the rhythm of the breath, we find the air.

(Bridge)

Year by year, let it unfold,

Decade by decade, be brave, be bold.
The truth is simple, hidden in plain sight,
In the depths of your soul, let there be light.
Life may seem like a tangled game,
But the jewel within, it calls your name.
In the breath, the secret lies,
Look within, let your spirit rise.

(Chorus)

Breathe in, breathe out, can't you see?
The universe is you, and you are free.
With every breath, we find the key,
Unlock the treasure that's meant to be.
Oh, the power, the love we share,
In the rhythm of the breath, we find the air.

(Outro)

So ponder deep, let the journey start,
In the game of hide-and-seek, play your part.
The breath will guide you, set your spirit free,
In every moment, just breathe, just be.
